KOHLER ACADEMY Offers $2,000 Scholarships for Skin Therapy Students

Scottsdale, AZ (September 4, 2009) – North Scottsdale’s Kohler Academy, the premier cosmetology and skin care school in the Southwest, is proud to offer $2,000 scholarships for ALL Skin Therapy students with September class start dates.

Full-time day and part-time night Skin Therapy students are eligible for a $2,000 scholarship from Kohler Academy’s Josephine Warren Scholarship fund. The scholarship will be applied directly to the students’ tuition at Kohler Academy and is available to ALL Skin Therapy students beginning the curriculum in September.

“Our curriculum is structured for professional success. The scholarship simply enhances the opportunity for prospective students to start their career here with Kohler Academy,” said Jill Kohler, President of Kohler Academy. Skin Therapy students can pursue a post-graduate career as a Skin Care Therapist, Makeup Artist, Editorial Stylist, Spa Manager, Spa Owner, Product Specialist and more.

Kohler Academy, a 14,000 square foot cosmetology and skin care school in North Scottsdale, AZ, is a Pivot Point Member School and a Dermalogica Partnership Plus School. Incorporating Kohler Academy’s proprietary Life Skills Program, Kohler Academy offers a unique curriculum that focuses on business education, professional development and cultural awareness in addition to fundamental technical training. Kohler Academy is also a retailer of Dermalogica, bareMinerals and Bumble and bumble products. Visit Kohler Academy’s website at www.kohleracademy.com to learn more.
